Dear Paul,

We are pleased to inform you that our hotel room is available for the days indicated in your last email. We are confident that your stay with us will be pleasant and comfortable.

Our room offers a breathtaking panoramic view of the Apennines, making your stay even more special. Images of unspoilt, wild nature blend perfectly with the culinary traditions of the area.

Speaking of good food, we will be happy to recommend the best local wines, so that you can savour the flavours of our region to the full. The local cuisine is famous for its authenticity and attention to the quality of ingredients, which are selected with care and passion.

For lovers of nature and open-air activities, our area offers numerous hiking and horseback riding trails that allow you to discover the natural beauty of the Apennines. The area is characterised by a great variety of landscapes, from mountains to valleys, from forests to alpine meadows, offering routes for all tastes and needs.

Moreover, our hotel is located in a strategic position, making it easy to reach many tourist attractions in the area, such as castles, ancient villages, museums and much more.

We would like to thank you for choosing our hotel for your stay and look forward to welcoming you among our guests soon. Our staff will always be on hand to ensure you have an unforgettable stay.

Best regards and see you soon.
